

Dear FCC Please don't let XM radio get into the transmission of local radio. This was never in their promised charter and is an effort to gain a foothold into the local radio business.

XM radio was liscensed as a national satellite service. If their business plan is not adequate for success that should not be the problem of local radio stations.

Please do not let them use translators and other local terrestrial delivery systems other than the one they were liscensed for.